Dear Friends of Sizanani

November 2020

Greetings to you all. We hope that you are all well, and managing to cope in spite of all that 2020 has thrown our way.

In June this year, we asked for your help to raise R100 000.00 to enable us to complete this year of training. We are excited to report back to you that a total of R97 344 was received (after bank charges were paid ☺), which means that we definitely SMASHED the appeal limit, if we take these charges into account too.

THANK YOU for your support. Your efforts have meant that –

- we have had enough cash flow to continue training to the end of the year, especially as some of our annual donors were unable to contribute this year;
- we were able to give each full time student a discount on their fees, which meant that we could give back to the students who were also suffering through the financial crises the Corona Virus brought about;
- we were able to afford to introduce a Pilot Basic Costing Course to some of our weekday students. This element of our training has been lacking and the training has been welcomed by those who participated;
- we will be able to start our training courses in 2021;
- we have the means to advertise our courses for the coming year;
- We can budget for a training assistant for 2021.

Due to COVID restrictions for gatherings, we have POSTPONED
 our 2020 Prize-Giving and Year End Fashion Show until March 2021. It feels very strange that we are not preparing for this event this year. We hope that by March, we will be able to celebrate with the students and their families.

We have been able to show-case a variety of outfits that students have made this year, on our Facebook page
